LITHUANIA DEPORTS ALL ASIAN REFUGEES. Lithuania on 3 August deported about 30 refugees from Bangladesh, India, Pakistan, and Afghanistan, leaving no officially registered Asian asylum seekers in the country, BNS reported. Fourteen refugees from Bangladesh with Russian visas were detained on 30 July near the seaside resort of Palanga, while 12 from India were captured on the Polish-Lithuanian border two days later. -- Saulius Girnius, OMRI, Inc.
